A Legislative Investigation of the Penitentiary Demanded.

PROMPT ACTION WILL BE TAKEN

By the Governor if the Inspectors Fail In Their Duty.

RUTAN AND ROBBINS COME TOGETHER.

The Appropriation Committee Will Take a Hand in The Matter.

Senator Robbins has asked for a legislative investigation of the management of the Western Penitentiary. A special committee was not appointed, but the matter was referred to the Appropriation Committee, the Chairman of which, Senator Reyburn, intimated that the institution would get no more money from the State until the committee is thoroughly satisfied with its management. Governor Beaver says he will not interfere with the Board of Inspectors so long as their investigation is carried on in public, but if the board fails to do its whole duty he will act promptly.

The speaker was Senator Robbins, of Westmoreland. The reply to this thrust came in quick and clear.

"If you only go through me to the extent of your ability, Mr. Robbins, you will not go very far, and if I had done right I would have told the Senate that you faithfully promised me before I left you this morning that you would not introduce the resolu-

These pointed remarks were made to-day after the adjournment of the Senate. The exciting cause was the resolution offered by Senator Robbins asking for an investigation of the Western Penitentiary by a committee composed of two Senators and three Representatives. The Clerk had hardly repeated the last word of the resolution when Senator Rutan was on his feet to oppose it.

A FAIR INVESTIGATION. "The Board of Inspectors, taken from among the best citizens of Western Pennsylvania," he said, "are conducting the investigation, and two resident members of the State Board of Charities are watching it. I have telegrams from these asking that no action be taken by the Legislature until the investigation is disposed of, and I ask for the sake of the prison officials, the Board of Inspectors and the State Board of Public Charities that this resolution be voted

At the conclusion of Mr. Rutan's remarks Senator Robbins explained that he intended no reflection on the institution, but it was asking a large appropriation from the Leg-islature, and the Legislature ought to know all about it. For the sake of the prison authorities and the Board of Inspectors as well, he asked that daylight be let in. His county was as much interested as that of the Allegheny Senator. Senator Reyburn, Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, said his committee would necessarily investigate the peniten-tiary before granting the appropriation and could take cognizance of this matter among others, and thus save the expense of a special investigation. He promised to invite the Senator from Westmoreland to partici-

REFLECTED ON THEIR INTEGRITY. Senators Gobin and Delamater moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Senator Newmyer stated that he failed to see the necessity for the resolution, and was quite willing to trust the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee. The investiga-tion now in progress was open and public, Legislative investigation was a reflection on the integrity of the gentlemen engaged in it. Senator Gobin—On what authority is this investigation proceeding? Senator Newmyer-On the authority inherent in the Board of Inspectors. There is no attempt to screen anything, and the motion is consequently premature.

Senator Delamater said he very much doubted the wisdom of the resolution, but did not feel like standing in the position of suppressing it.

Senator Gobin thought the State ought to participate in the investigation. Nothing was known concerning the trouble at the penitentiary, but the resolution, which referred to the newspaper reports, and the Legislature ought to learn if these are cor-

DIFFICULT TO EXPLAIN.

Mr. McLain, of Washington, considered that it would be a very difficult matter for a Senator to explain to his constituents his reasons for voting down such a resolution. Senator Rutan explained that there was plenty of time for the Legislature to investi-gate, if necessary, after the conclusion of the present investigation. The resolution, he declared, was a personal reflection, and was intended as such, and he moved for an indefinite postponement. Senator Newmyer seconded the motion, but it was voted down and the resolution referred to the lown and the resolution referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Just before the question was put Senator

Robbins, with much feeling, took exception to the last remarks made by Senator Rutan, saying he had no right to attack him in that manner. He then sat down, to renew his sult stated.

Governor Beaver says that, in his opinion. everything is proceeding properly in the in-vestigation at the Western Penitentiary, and, as long as it proceeds publicly and openly as at present, there is no need for inbranch of the government. The whole matter is in the hands of the Board of Inspectors until they indicate that they are not doing their duty, in which event the Governor says he will act, and act promptly. SIMPSON.

AGAINST COMPANY STORES.

Knights of Labor Taking Action and Will be Aided by Country Storekeepers.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, February 7 .- The Knights of Labor Legislative Committee has just sent out 2,000 circulars to K. of L. assemblies advising them of the action of the blies advising them of the action of the recent State Convention and the plans of work so far as decided on. The preliminary work of the Legislative Committee is necessarily slow, but it proposes for one thing to make a vigorout it proposes for one thing to make a rigor-ous fight on the company stores, for the sup-pression of which there are now two bills be-fore the Legislature. The Legislative Commit-tee is not unfavorably impressed with an idea that has been advanced to tax the stores out of

There is a rumor affeat that the country storckeepers are likely to hold a convention here at no distant day to take action on their own accountagainst the company stores, which are in many places a serious drawback to their business. If they meet here the Legislative Committee of the K. of L. will try to unite with them on a common plan of action.

FROM A STAFF COBRESPONDENT. 2 HARRISBURG, February 7 .- Representative Stewart's bill to regulate the grade erossings as it comes from committee is yery objectionable to the Allegheny members.

Sold by all druggists, $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. It provides now that a city can vacate streets crossed by a railroad if the safety of the public demands it and the street is not necessary. It also provides that in changes of grades where existing streets cross existing railways the ex-pense of the change shall be divided between the city and the railroads.

So far as now arranged, General Gibson will command the United States troops, General Hartranft the National Guard of Pennsylvania, and General Ordway the District militia. Three appointments remain to be made, including the commander of the G. A. R. division. The place of honor in both civic and military columns is given to Pennsylvania. At Mt. A HOME THRUST.

Democratic Legislator is the Victim o Republican Repartee.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, February 7 .- The farmers' friends were out in force to-day, but the city members were somewhat puzzled by them as some wanted a bounty on foxes, weasels minks, polecats and hawks, while others didn't. The debate, nowever, was enlivened by a great deal of wit and humor and after some particu-larly bright repartee the Speaker himself re-laxed and forgot the gavel in his good right hand.

The prettiest home thrust of the debate was made by Mr. Evans, of Bedford, whose head and beard are frested with the snows of many winters.

Captain Hassett, with a great assumption of dignity, arose on the Democratic side while Mr. Evans was speaking and inquired: "Mr. Evans, do coons do any damage?"

"Some kinds of coons," responded Mr. Evans, "did great damage to the Democratic party last fall."

Captain Hassett enjoyed the lange as well as

At this stage of the proceedings a motion for a were before the Military Affairs Committee them to erect a memorial hall instead of monuthem to erect a memorial hall instead of monu-ments. Governor Curtin says New York is going to appropriate $100,000 for the purpose. "They say up there," he said, "that New York has more soldiers buried at Gettysburg than Penn-sylvania has, and why? Because I was there to send our boys home by carloads to be buried."

ALLEGHENY'S ALL RIGHT.

The Changes in the Inter-Municipal Bill Asked for Will be Made.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, February 7 .- Ex-Attorney General Palmer was before the Municipal Affairs Committee of the Senate this evening, and confirmed the statement made yester-day by Mr. Rodgers concerning the intent of the day by Mr. Rodgers concerning the intent of the decision of the Act of 1874. He argued the particular case on which the decision was made, and, therefore, knows whereof he speaks. Attorneys from many of the cities interested in the inter-municipal bill were present, and it was unamicously agreed to amend the bill as Mr. Rodgers requested on behalf of Allegheny, which can, therefore, consider itself under its special charter. special charter.

dyspepsia. Headache, heartburn, sour stomach, faintness and capricious appetite are also caused by this very widespread and growing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves headache, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all gone feeling, as though I had not eaten any-thing. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla that I am happy to recommend it." G. A.
